

The Greater Works

Truly, truly I say to you, he who believes in me, the works that I do shall he do also, and greater works than these shall he do because I go to the Father.

CAGES AND SHACKLES

Greetings Mighty Saints & Prayer Warriors,

My wife Donna and I like to travel. However, to travel we must board our five cats. Our cats learned long ago what the small, portable kennels were for; and they avoid them at all costs. Catching the first cat is easy; but its mournful, deep grievous meow attests its fate to the other four cats, and the hunt for them is on.

When the task is done, I load them in my car and drive them to the kennel.

During the last trip to the kennel, I was listening to the cacophony of wailing meows; and the Lord put a thought in my mind. My cats hated to be caged in those small kennels. I thought about other animals imprisoned in cages or in chains. Tigers pace; elephants rock back and forth. The animal kingdom does not like chains and fetters. That is when the Lord told me that man is not very different. But man is caged by his sin, and rages to be set free.

While we all are caged in some way, I realized that the cages we allow ourselves to be in are different sizes. Not only that, we even have the key to free ourselves; but some choose not to. It is tragic to see the small, tight cages some have chosen to continue to live in when total freedom is at hand. The caged are bound by bitterness, resentment, and unforgiveness. This poison brew (BRU) that they have chosen affects not only them but also the people they come in contact with, especially family members.

Through unresolved and unrepentant sin, we remain prisoners. Again, I say, you have the key. Peter was in prison, bound with two chains and between two soldiers. An angel appeared and freed him. The angel said follow him; and once inside the city, the angel disappeared. Things were happening so fast that Peter did not realize it wasn't a dream until after the fact.

Shackles and cages are nothing to our Lord. In Luke 4:18 Jesus announces, “. . .He hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives. . .” There is no time like now. What are you shackled by? Just ask the Lord and see. He is standing next to you now with His hand out. What are you waiting for?

Blessings,
malcolm
